

Senior leaders of NUJ(I) at the meeting places on June 25 to protest against the attacks on mediapersons. He said there are planning to expand the organisation wrok in different parts of the state.

Shri Ashok Malik, president of Chandigarh Journalists Association (CUJ) said the unit has active participation in all the activities of NUJ (I). He said many agitational activities are conducted for security and facilities for journalists. He said the number of members is also increasing.

Shri Ratan Dixit, president of Uttar Pradesh Journalist Association (UPJA) said the number of the members is increasing. He said demonstrations were organised at different district headquarters to protest against the attacks on journalists.

Shri Gagan Pande, secretary of NUJ (I) Bihar, said the state has been divided into four parts to increase the members in the state unit. Many activities have been conducted in different districts. Shri Shiv Kumar Agrawal, secretary general of Journalists Union of Jharkhand (JUU) said the number of the the authorities concerned. He said despite the spread of naxalite activities, the organisational work is expanding all over the state.

In his report secretary of Himachal Pradesh Union of Journalists enumerated different activities conducted in the state. The responsibility of conducted elections in Punjab has been entrusted to NUJ (I) vice president Shri Jitendra Awasthi, Shri Harish Vashishtha and Shri Avatar Singh. The responsibility of Jammu & Kashmir unit has also been entrusted to Shri Avatar Singh.

Shri Ashok Malik and Shri Harish Vashishtha of CJA informed the delegates in the beginning of the second session about the role of the NUJ (I) in the fight against retrenchment of some employees of The Tribune Group of Newspapers.

The meeting discussed in details the reactivation of NUI (I) School of

Press Council of India member U Laxman being welcomed by Suresh Sharma

members has increased to 1000. Many demonstrations were organised for different demands of the journalists. A demonstration was organised on May 1 and a memorandum was also presented to